

studies and Manichaean studies to come together and at last work on the problem from a fully informed standpoint.

Northern Arizona University, Flagstaff Jason BEDUHN

Willigis Eckermann, Pater Engelbert Eberhard (1893-1958) – Augustiner, Provinzial, General. Eine Biographie, (Studia Augustiniana Historica, 18), Würzburg: Echter Verlag, 2012, 978-3-429-03528-0, 331 p.

Based on thorough archival research, Eckermann presents the biography of the Augustinian Father Engelbert Eberhard. After his religious formation and classical studies (with a doctorate on Homer), he took several responsibilities in the United States. In 1930, he became Provincial in Germany and led his province through the difficult times of the Nazi regime and the Second World War. In 1953 he was elected as General of the Augustinian Order. As such, this biography does not only sketch the interesting life of a multi-faceted charismatic religious, but offers also a vivid image of the turbulent history of the Augustinian Order and the Catholic Church in the 20th Century before the Second Vatican Council.

Anthony DUPONT
Flori Lugdunensis Expositio in Epistolas beati Pauli ex operibus S. Augustini. Pars III. In Epistolam secundam ad Corinthos. In Epistolas ad Galatas, Ephesios et Philippenses. Cura et studio Paul-Irénée Fransen o.s.b., Luc De Coninck, Bertrand Coppieters 't Wallant, Roland Demeulenaere, (Corpus Christianorum. Continuatio Mediaevalis, 220B; Flori Lugdunensis Opera Omnia, Tomus VI), Turnhout: Brepols, 2011, 978-2-503-05205-2, XXXII + 566 p.

The present volume constitutes the first in an ambitious endeavor to provide the first modern edition of Florus of Lyon's Expositio in Epistolas beati Pauli ex operibus S. Augustini (Expositio), a commentary on the Epistles of Paul made up entirely of fragments from the works of St. Augustine, which is widely considered to be one of the most important secondary sources for the bishop of Hippo's oeuvre. Though it is the first volume to appear, it appears to come third in the